SUFFOLK HIGH SCHOOL
SUFFOLK, VIRGINIA

A new day is dawning.

Flag raisers Ramsey and Lubin.

BEFORE SCHOOL

A rainy day in December.

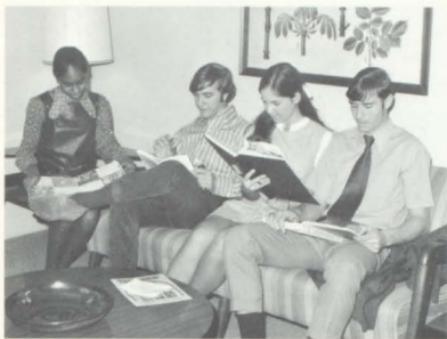

"SCA Friday morning at 8:05."

"I've got to go to my locker first."

Of course it's crowded; it's the "little" girls' room.

"How did we ever get detention hall?"

You did what Saturday night?

8:30 band practice at the ball park.

"Some paper, please."

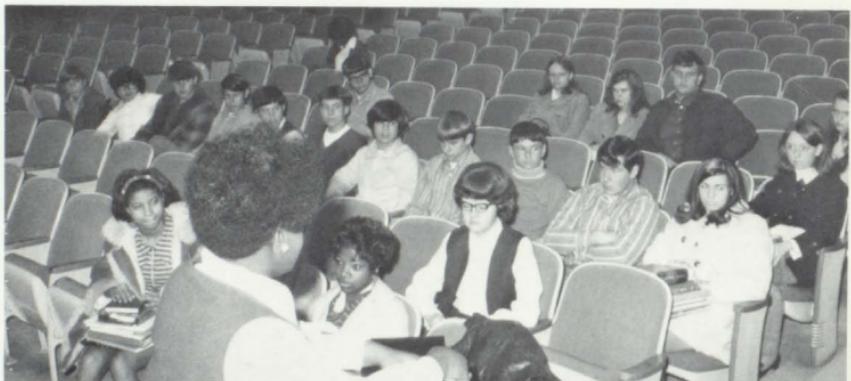

No, it's not riflery; it's band practice.

"Hey, buy a SUNBURST. It's only a quarter."

"Oh, why didn't I study it last night?"

"D.E. Meeting tomorrow morning in the auditorium."

What a way to start the day – debating.

Come on, girls. Let's try that last routine again.

Practice makes perfect!

So — nobody ever goes to homeroom!

B.T.W.'s bus making its morning rounds.

"You actually think I wrote that excuse!"

It's a mad rush around here at 8:45.

Ready 1-2-3, for 8:30 band practice.

Even the clock is dragging at this time of day.

MORNING

It's second period, and Lennie Carr still hasn't awakened!

On your mark, get ready, sing!

LUNCH

Who ever heard of 40 cents for a hamburger?

Teachers turn Mrs. White's Office into a private lunchroom.

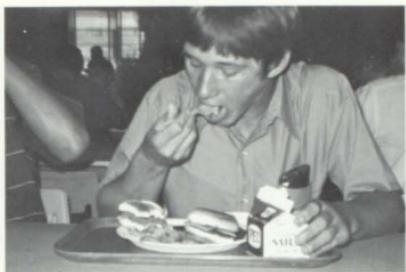

Keep the line moving!

Seniors enjoy a nourishing lunch in the Old Gym.

Some people had rather talk than eat.

What intestinal fortitude!

Guess what? Donnie Beamon has table manners!

Sophomores substitute bicycles for cars after lunch.

The Old Gym has soul.

Seniors guard the front steps against an underclassmen invasion.

And there are those who have other things on their minds at lunch.

2 o'clock finally—only 1 more hour left.

Simon says, "Break down, hike 1".

"Hot Roasted Peanuts - only 10 cents."

Rain doesn't dampen cheerleaders' spirit.

William Biggs clears the way for Cecil Bernard.

Success!

"Hey, Roy, you didn't have your Wheaties."

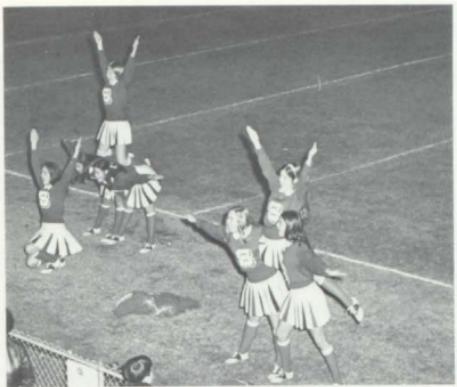

Majorettes give a fired-up half-time show.

The ailing Barnett and Beamon supply bench with the secret to success.

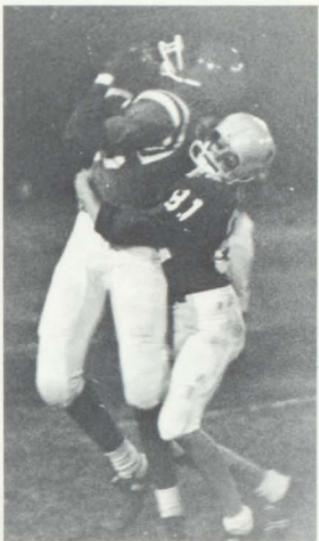

Steve Thompson protects the football team from a Massacre.

Perfection plus

The senior screamers sound off.

Oather honors the Honor Society with his very own coat.

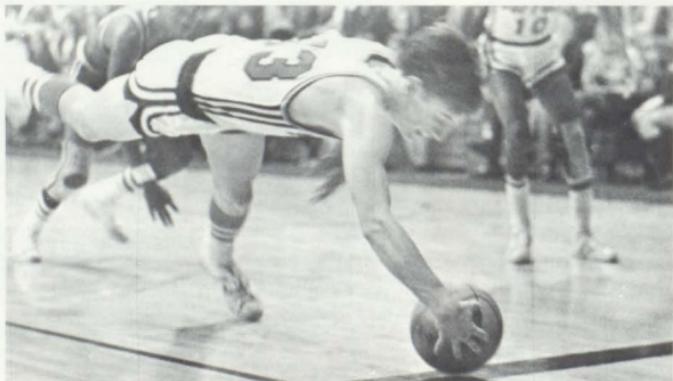

Red hot Raiders warm up.

Raiders huddle for last minute instructions.

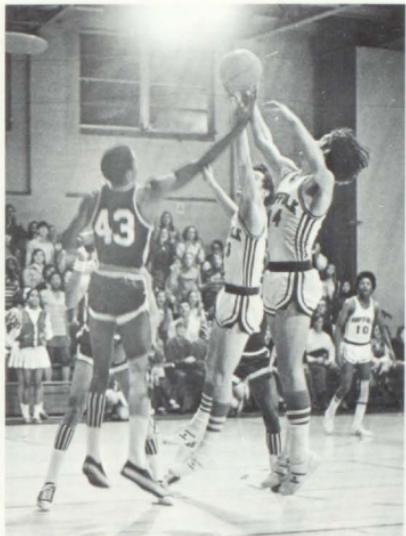

"Y-E-L-L! Everybody yell!

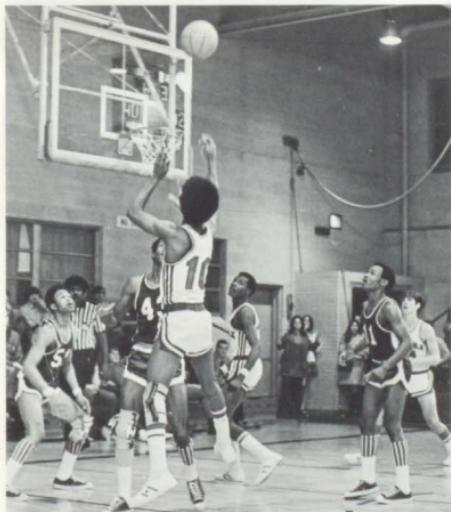

"Look, Ma, no hands!"

SHS Indian guards the Raider bench.

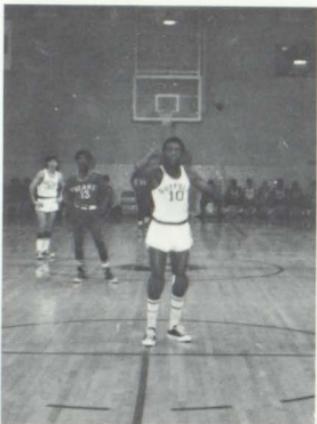

Sophomore stars, Beamon and Holliday, team up against Windsor.

Marvelous! Marvin scores again.

The highlight of Bill Ballard's basketball career.

"One shot; ball's in play when it touches the rim."

Charge!

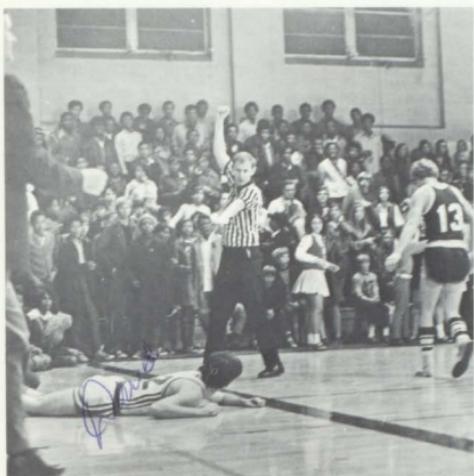

Girls feel the surprise of victory.

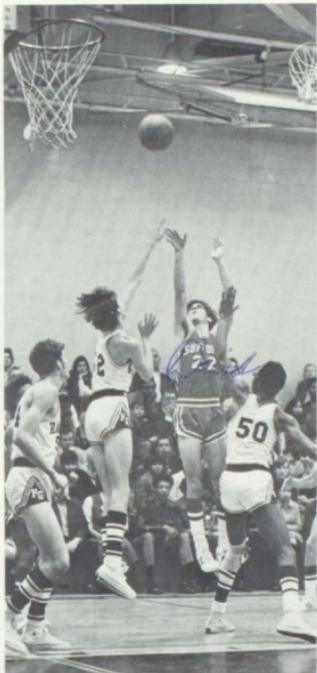

Calvin Young puts it up for a J.V. victory.

"Dance to the music."

"Really, Mom we did go to the football game."

Everybody likes the Peanut Bowl-Free food!

25th ANNUAL

PRINCESS BEVERLY

QUEEN RUSS

PRINCESS ANGELA

This year marked the 25th year of the Peanut Bowl sponsored by the Rotary Club. Russ Hines was elected queen by the football team with Beverly Lassiter and Angela Locust princesses. Class floats were begun weeks in advance carrying out given themes. Finally, after weeks of anticipation, the night of October 23 arrived. Russ was crowned queen, the Juniors captured float honors, and the football team fought to a 14-14 tie with the Smithfield Packers.

The Senior class celebrates "The 25th Annual Peanut Bowl."

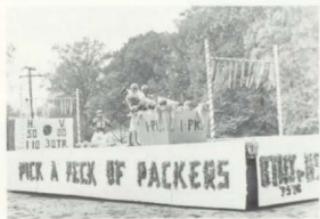

Juniors honor public education - "100 Years and Still Going."

PEANUT BOWL

Sophomores thought Polly wanted a Packer. The judges didn't.

BTW Junior High presented their first float — "Pick A Peck of Packers."

The Freshman class walked their way into 2nd place with a novel idea.

The 1970 Peanut Bowl is highlighted by the crowning of the queen, Russ Hines, by Mr. Cloyd Steinmetz. Russ and her court later retired on the sidelines to watch the 25th Annual Peanut Bowl Game.

1971 OUTSTANDING SENIORS

Seniors, by their own seniority, tend to collect honors and awards. Among the many and various designations, none is more coveted and appreciated than that of "Outstanding Senior". Not only does it crown twelve years of individual achievement but also testifies that by their own vote one's classmates recognize and applaud the accomplishments.

Vepco's first commercial atomic power station is now under construction in Barry County, Virginia. In the new Information Center overlooking the site, you will see an excellent slide presentation, fascinating exhibits, and a working model of the reactor. THE "PEANUT" STAFF

Case, well, to begin with, I think that writing in books is the dumbest thing since the Partridge
Family's weekly series, don't, for you, anything!!
There isn't enough paper in the world to tell of all the things we've done, or to tell exactly how much I think of you. It's been just about a year now and I just don't ever get sick of ya. I guess that's because together we've raised more hell than anyone that has ever, or will ever pass through this little hell of a town. I could say remember that time we went swimming, listened to the thugs at 4 a.m., had the big mix-up with Billy and Satty had to eat steak in the woods at the beach and a mattress, and took a bath, but I won't. I'm sure you remember all those things and besides that isn't what's really important. I got that fulin today, & came to the realization that in a very short time you'd be gone and really gone. That makes me really sad

- Reserved -

Sam It's been lots of fun having you in some
of my classes this year
This is it - we're finally gonna let's make the best month
I sure hope everybody goes wild at Pags Head this weekend cause it's probably the last time we're senior class will be together. I certainly hope to see you a lot this summer. Try to have a blast at college this year, but don't forget to study as hard as I am.

See ya this summer!

Love ya!
David
